

ANGELA LEPORE

Angela lives in Norwalk with her husband Michael (Luke) Lepore and their 2 children. Angela's husband opened Luke's Auto Body Inc. in November 1973. She became involved as her children went off to school by working part time for the business. Today Angela is involved in the daily operation of the business with Luke and their son Michael by her side. She got involved in I-Car in 1996 with setting up classes and locations for the classes and then with the collection of the money for the classes. Angela has been a member of the Norwalk Exchange Club since May 2007. Her hobbies are reading and scrapbooking.
