

ANGELO CAMPANELLA

Angelo Campanella has been in the auto industry since the day he took his first steps. He is a second generation shop owner who specializes in heavy collision. Along with celebrating 30 years in business he is also the lead I-Car instructor for the state of CT. He continues to dedicate his time to make the industry a better place in preparation for his son A.J. to continue for a third generation of serving the Stamford area with quality and trusted car repairs
