

MICHAEL TARZIA

Michael Tarzia has been in the automotive industry since 1976. He has three grown children. His youngest son Matthew has become his right hand man and is showing a strong interest in taking over the family business. Mike's wife Joanie is his partner and works by his side. As a family business, it is important for them to make every customer feel like they are part of the family. Mike enjoys sports, motorcycles and his grandson.