

Richard Zacchia graduated from Bullard Havens Vo-Tech School in Bridgeport in 1982. Upon graduating he pursued his career in the Automotive Industry. In 1992 an opportunity was presented to him and Richard purchased Traynor Auto Body in Fairfield. Nine years later another opportunity came his way and Richard opened a second location, Traynor Collision Center in Milford. Richard has taken many Continuing Education Courses such as ASE and I-CAR Certification. When away from the shop, he enjoys golfing, baseball and time with his family.
